Dr James

Dec. 26th 1831

I rec<sup>d</sup> yours of the 14th Inst & was very glad to hear from you — Your apology for not writing is a reasonable reproof if not a reproach to me — I have been sick & unwell nearly ever since I saw you last. The increase in your District last year was about 400 — I suppose you mean to take in that many this year if nobody will help you — 100 1st Round!

I am truly glad that your reception on the District is religious & pleasant — in "Sickness & sorrow" this will be some health to your bones.

You ask "How is it" Why it may be — as you write his name is proselyted to the opinions of Bro L-n (an unwise) or Bro L-n proselyted to the Opinions of Mr — Now one on the District & the other on the Circuit — might militate against the equity of the courts both below & above — But Bro L-n is an old man of strong prejudices & passions & I am sorry to say that his former judgment & understanding has forsaken him — This is my way to account for the facts stated in yours — He is a good man and long tried — & I am exceedingly sorry that it was necessary to put the poor old man on S Creek — I hope you will try to make him as comfortable as you can. Never before did he travel where it was lawful to take more than 6 Pl interest & he does not believe the law now — If this is not a good explanation — it will satisfy you I hope fully as well as it does me!

It was a pity that I let you have the "walker" as he did not suit you I could have sold him for $100—several times but may be it would have been too much I gave $95 for him—I know of no defecting in either his limbs or legs—possibly you were too heavy for him Crooked leg has done nothing since I had him. The boys went (when I was very sick) to make him plough but he would not go it—so he has five times
But I intend to get some waggoner to try him

I think I shall go to Gen Con. (if able) in the stage
I can go & come the quickest that way. The Yankees you know will spend all they cleverly can & there is no great sin in doing as they do when they do right.
Suppose you come by this place & let us go on together then it will be a matter of subsequent to pass thro Pitt. & Chambersburgh &c. Unless you keep this matter pretty still you will have more company than can travel together comfortably—if it meet your views bring but one with you—no body as like the you best. Your great house is (I suppose) Episcopally dedicated I wish I could be with you next Sabbath at I believe in Circumlocution! I am glad Sister Philip's health is better & that the Old man is hauled up this weather—
Affliction seems to press me even harder than old age but both combined, may soon wind up my history—
The Will of the Lord be done!
Wife joins heartily in love to you & yours
JW Finley

With regard to the manner in which the Radical Conference broke up in Yarmouth I can give you little or no information for I neither attended nor could I learn that any of my acquaintances did, to which I might with prudence apply for information. But it was rumored thro' Town that during their session there <sup>was</sup> some dissensions among them rather angry & irreligious—You have seen the great improvement made in their Stations!—

As to "Old Nick" he seems to be a perfect drone here among them—No revival—(Next to no congregation) He is well dressed—Has a fine pair of walking gloves — goes up to Lehigh Town (a Rad) & sits with his gloves on 2 or 3 hours at a time—Sister has faith—He is a widower!! This may all be strong for his own folks don't like him here.

In the Spring he is going (so said) to ~~some~~ them such a trick as the Devil never did since their schism id. est. Go off & leave them!

The Bishop of Obery in the reign of Bloody Mary was driven from his See & took refuge in a foreign land & never was restored. A wald be wit met him one morning with "Good morrow Bishop guondam" to which the bishop shortly replied "Adieu Knave semper" B, Guondam is gone to Circumlocution—Do you know any thing semper Knave?

I see bottom Adieu

JW (With Love)
